Agronomy Tip Sheet

As we head into August it is time to think about how to get the most out of our hayfields and pastures this fall. Do you want to stockpile fescue for fall grazing or get the most out of a fall hay cutting? A fertilizer application can help boost growth as temperatures begin to cool and grasses begin to actively grow again. Nitrogen will help to stimulate above ground growth while phosphorous and potash will help root development to help strengthen your grass stands going into winter. Mid-August is a good time to apply nitrogen for fall stockpile. Phosphorous and potash can be applied at the same time if needed or later in the fall. It may be time for new soil samples to help evaluate your needs. Your CFC Territory Sales Manager can help you develop a plan to get the most out of your forages this fall. Find this and previous tip sheets at www.cfcfarmhome.com/agronomy/agronomy-tip-sheet.
